

SCHOOL SOCIAL WORK

for pupils, parents, teachers and all-day school staff

WE INFORM AND ADVISE

- on education and participation (e.g. financial support for school lunches, class trips, learning support)
- on educational issues and difficulties in the family

WE ACCOMPANY AND STRENGTHEN

- through social group work (e.g. social training)
- through prevention offers (e.g. social media, drugs, violence)
- through leisure and educational activities

WE SUPPORT

- referral to specialist services (e.g. counselling centres, school psychology service, youth welfare)
- in case of problems and crises in everyday school life (e.g. quarrels, school avoidance, exam anxiety, bullying)

WE ARE AVAILABLE

We are happy to make appointments by personal arrangement. We work on a voluntary basis and are bound by professional secrecy.

THE KJA BONN

(responsible for school social work)

The Katholische Jugendagentur Bonn gGmbH - KJA Bonn for short - is a non-profit and recognised voluntary youth welfare organisation active in the regions of Altenkirchen, Bonn, Euskirchen and Rhein-Sieg.

We support children and young people between the ages of six and thirty, regardless of their own abilities, origin, nationality, status, gender, religious affiliation, and world view.

We take sides with young people, intervene, and influence their living conditions.

The motivation for our daily actions is reflected in our mission statement: The KJA Bonn lives, believes, and interferes.

Young people shape the future of our society. Our mission is to work with them to create the foundations for a successful life. In our variety of facilities and services in the field of youth social work, we strengthen, support, and advise especially socially disadvantaged and individually handicapped children, youths, and young adults. We meet them at eye level and represent their concerns in public and in relevant networks.
